DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
FOR CONGRESS,
HON. GEO. G. GILBERT,
OF SHELBY COUNTY.

ANNOUNCEMENT
We are authorized to announce JOHN B. CHENAU, of Madison county, a candidate for the office of State Auditor, subject to the action of the Democratic State Convention.

EDITOR WALTON, of the Stanford Interior Journal, who spells negro with a capital N, has had the compliment returned by having a colored baseball club named after his excellent paper—Glasgow News.

A GREAT MANY Republicans are free to admit that if Mr. Davidson is renominated for Congress, Jessamine county will give Gilbert a majority of 500, which will give the district to Mr. Gilbert by about 2,500—Jessamine Journal.

EX-GOV. JAS. B. MCCREARY, who is very favorably mentioned as one of the Peace Commissioners, has declared in favor of holding all the territory over which old glory floats, and we believe that he voices Kentucky's opinion on the question.—Bourbon News.

A FAVORABLE report from Garrard county has been made by State Senator George Farra. He says that his county, which has usually gone Republican by 200 or 300 votes, is certain to give the Hon. G. G. Gilbert a majority this fall in the Congressional race.—Shelby Sentinel.

THE latest paper to be launched is The Scimitar, which made its appearance last Friday at Beattyville under the management of Chas. D. Hammond and B. McGuire. This paper, which succeeds the Enterprise, is smaller in dimensions but the first issue ranks at the top notch of country weeklies.

HAD the Republicans given the Democrats a fair count in Kentucky in 1896 the good-faith would not have been thought of, and now that the Democrats are de-frauded to have a fair count so far as their interests go, the Republicans kick. Wait until the election officers do wrong before you condemn them.—Carlisle Mercury.

SAM H. KASH, who was the leading Presidential elector in 1896, and who wanted a foreign mission, was later satisfied with a gauger's place, was on Wednesday's train. He is red-hot for Hon. John Henry Wilson, of Barboursville, for Circuit Judge, and says he will sit hands down, the leaders even in Laurel being for him.—Stanford Journal.

THE suit of the Owensboro Messenger against Louis Hitechock was decided Friday, judgment being given the plaintiff, says an Owensboro dispatch. The suit was to recover subscription money due for many years. The paper was sent to Hitechock's father, and after his death, was continued, after repeated requests to stop it. The Judge held that a paper that was read would have to be paid for.

WE wish the Auditor would carry out his threat not to pay the Election Commission and thus strengthen the hands of the Democrats when they come to discuss the State issues next year. We will be able to show and prove that the present State administration has been the most shameful one for years, and that the State has lost money by its existence, and that Auditor Stone has paid money out of the Treasury without warrant of law, and has driven a low contractor out of the State's service and placed the State's work in the hands of a higher priced contractor. Brother Stone will find Jordan a hard road to travel.—Carlisle Mercury.

In the past six weeks eleven Democratic State conventions have been held. Of these only New York, Rhode Island, Maryland and Connecticut have refused to declare in favor of the metallic plank of the Chicago platform.

None of these conventions declared against it; they were simply silent. On the other hand the ten States of Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, Texas, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida have spoken out in favor of the metallic plank of the Chicago platform.

THE Ohio Democrats in convention at Dayton to nominate minor State officers endorsed the Chicago platform, favor Bryan for President in 1900, demand an income tax, government ownership of the Nicaragua canal, a free government for Cuba, oppose any alliance with England, oppose an increase of the standing army and demand through Senator Foraker an investigation of the charges against Hanna.

Gov. McCreary says the interviews with him in the Courier-Journal and Louisville Commercial, of one day last week, were rank fakes. These interviews represented Mr. McCreary as a cantankerous imperialist, whereas his views, as expressed in the Louisville Dispatch, of Monday, are those that will be adopted, no doubt, by the vast majority of the American people. He believes in holding permanently all the territory that we conquered in the Western Hemisphere; also the city of Manila in the Philippines, and possibly the entire island of Luzon. The Governor believes that the question of the Philippines should not be made a party issue and that the Democracy should adhere to the Chicago platform and plan their battles along its lines.

Coleman, of Lexington, and Messrs. Jas. Stone, Will Stone, Mason Brown and Mr. Scott, of Frankfort, compose a house party which is being entertained by Misses Annie Louise and Sue Clay at "Auvergne," their beautiful home near this city. The Misses Clay gave a bowling party in their honor Wednesday morning, and that evening about sixty guests assembled at "Auvergne" to attend a card party which the Misses Clay gave in honor of their guests. The first prizes were won by Miss Stauffer (of Pennsylvania) and Mr. John Woodford. Dr. M. H. Daly and Miss Emma Miller won the consolation prizes. . . . Mr. C. F. Clay, Jr., left yesterday for Richmond, to join Miss Emma Chenault's house party. . . . Mr. T. Q. Ward, Jr., arrived home yesterday from a visit to Mr. Harvey Chenault at Richmond. . . . Mrs. L. H. Blanton and daughter, Miss Katherine, have returned to Richmond after a visit to Mrs. E. M. Dickson.—Bourbon News.

The crowning event of the mid-summer festivities was the house party of Miss Mary Emily Chenault, which commenced last Thursday night with a grand ball and moonlight fete. The large yard was brilliantly lighted by a headlight from one of the L. & N. locomotives, which, together with Japanese lanterns in every convenient nook, made the scene very effective. The parlors and dining-room were tastefully decorated in the national colors. A more sumptuous banquet has rarely been given here than that which was served from 11 to 1. Dancing was continued until a late hour, being participated in by all of Richmond's fair belles and gallant beaux. Those from a distance were Miss Clara Mammet, of Kensington, D. C.; Miss Fogg, of Lexington; Miss Brown, of Texas; Miss Davis, of Louisville, and Miss Thompson, of Versailles; Dr. S. H. Blackburn, of Midway; Mr. Goodloe, Danville; Mr. C. T. Chenault, Winchester; Messrs. Harvey Prewitt and Robert Bridgforth, of Mr. Sterling. This event was a continuous round of pleasure until Monday, and equaled in all respects any similar social event given here in years.
